Reflections for this week:

- Which do you find more challenging, persevering through a trial or daily obeying God?
- What does it look like to put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness?
- How well do you feel you humbly listen to the Word? What are specific things that help the word stick in your mind?
- What is the difference between obeying God out of duty or pride versus obeying out of love?
- Where is God asking you to lean in this week to better obey in speech, love or the way you live?
